From finite law parameters to a repair-admissibility predicate